This enhanced, deep dive program is ideal for business leaders, consultants, coaches, researchers and sustainability practitioners who wish to further their personal development and learn about:

- Action-logics – the developmental paradigms through which we think and act
- The power and practice of Collaborative Developmental Action Inquiry

All participants take either the Global Leadership Profile or MyWorldView® leadership assessments and receive feedback on their centre-of-gravity, emergent and fallback leadership action-logics. Offered by Elaine Herdman-Barker, Richard Izard and Professor Bill Torbert alongside a facilitation team of our senior associates and members of our international coaching bench, this program comprehensively blends the what, why and how of transformational leadership development, including:

- 1) The theory of Collaborative Developmental Action Inquiry (CDAI)
- 2) The assessment of leaders' predominant action-logics (either using the GLP or in-action diagnoses), and
- 3) The ongoing practice of Action Inquiry at the personal, team, and organizational scales
- 4) Learning how to introduce a developmental approach into a teams and organizational context

September 17, 19, 24, 26 and October 1, 3, 8, 10, 15

Practitioner Certification

Part 1 on this certification workshop is the entry requirement to become a MyWorldView® Practitioner. Following attendance at the workshop you will join GLA's community of Practitioners with the following benefits:

- Access to a wide range of resources for coaching, team coaching, leadership development programs, and organizational application
- Marketing resources to help you sell MyWorldView® to your clients
- Regular free community events including Q&A sessions
- Discount on professional development programs offered by the community e.g. Working with the shadow side of the seven worldviews
- Regular news updates sharing developments in the field
- You will be able to manage your own MyWorldView® cohorts via access to the MyWorldView® platform and practitioner dashboard

Those who wish to become certified to debrief the GLP will need to go through a follow up GLP certification module which involves having the first two GLP debriefs supervised by a GLA coach.

Part 2 of this certification program can either be added to part 1 and you can attend all nine dates for this workshop. Or you can take Part 2 at any time after first completing a MyWorldView® certification workshop.

Part 2 is the chance to go deeper into adult developmental theory and practice. Specifically you will:

- Take the GLP and receive a profile with personalized commentary. If you have already taken MyWorldView® previously then your stem responses will be moved across to the GLP system and a personalized commentary added
- Explore sentence stem makeup and scoring to understand at a deeper level how this approach can inform leadership development and coaching
- Receive a one hour debrief with a GLA coach
- Take a deep dive into the seven action logics and how they show up in organizations and coaching
- Experience GLA's Action Inquiry approach as a way to make sense of and intervening in organizations
- Broaden from development of the individual to look at coaching, teams, organizational stages of development and culture change
- Explore the idea of leading for the common good of society and how this is informed by vertical development

Part 3 is a non-workshop stage and is for those who would like to become certified in debriefing the GLP. Unlike MyWorldView® which has a digital learning journey (debrief) the GLP requires a certified coach to debrief it. If you would like to go deeper with this work then Part 3 may be the perfect option for you. Only those who have completed all three parts can buy GLPs in the Authorized Practitioner Shop. Part 3 involves three meetings with a highly experienced GLA coach who will supervise your first two GLP debriefs.

Take advantage of GLA's decades of experience in offering vertical leadership development programs.

Together you will learn practical ways to help yourself and others:

- Assess current leadership action-logics—the centre-of-gravity, emergent and fallback perspectives that guide action and influence results

- Become conscious of and shift action/ mental/ emotional habits that are limiting effectiveness
- Exercise personal power with greater flexibility and mutuality to generate personal and organizational transformation
- Develop collaborative practices that increase mindful, relational and cultural intelligence in the wider organization
- Build capacity to lead from the inside out, confidently responding to the deepest calls of our human nature and of the natural world that holds us.

Your facilitation team, with their rich experience, will be on hand to answer any questions and to support your on-going inquiry through a number of additional, online Learning Cafe sessions.

How It Works

The program includes three streams that run in parallel:

Workshops: Highly interactive workshop-webinars. These webinars introduce you to the foundational theory and you'll do a deep-dive on the action-logics. In addition, there will be specific sessions on the action logics (Part 2) and organizational development/teams.

Self-paced Learning: As well as taking the MyWorldView® or the GLP you'll also get to use the digital Transformation Cards. We'll also be regularly offering other resources to support your learning journey.

Learning Cafes: Participants join Learning Cafes for the duration of the program. Learning Cafes are facilitated by a member of our team and allow you to explore questions in depth and will help you adopt the action-inquiry approach.

All of this is supported by cutting-edge but simple to use technology that helps maximize your learning experience.

About the GLP and MyWorldView® (MWV)

MyWorldView® is our new scale developmental (vertical) measure. It features the same 30 sentence stems as the GLP and is a break through in AI scoring to give the same reliability as the GLP. In addition MyWorldView® features a full digital debrief on an engaging platform and with animated videos which unlock the mystery of adult stages of development, or worldviews.

The GLP and its companion report, help us understand our current frameworks of thinking (action-logics). We are then able to make better sense of ourselves, others, and the contexts/ systems around us. It helps us question our current mindsets and paradigms and begin to shift them if appropriate. The reports offer coaches a rich resource to draw from that can lead to many powerful coaching inquiries and explorations. By measuring and analysing action-logics we are able to see more clearly the subtle dynamics at work within leaders, teams and organizations. Working on these can lead to deep transformations.

Over 50 years of research and real-world engagement points to the GLP and MyWorldView® instruments and GLA's Action Inquiry approach being world leading; impacting both individual and organizational transformations. Aside from the sentence-completions, the GLP asks participants to both complete a Self-Estimate and gather feedback from colleagues. This multiperspective approach to assessment models the richness of inquiring into both one's own and others' viewpoints. Each profile has a personalized commentary based on the leader's own sentence responses. This enables leaders to effectively explore in coaching, the patterns that will make the most difference to their leadership contribution.

GLA Workshops – Client Testimonials

“I’m deeply invested in using the GLP to make a difference with my clients, and rippling into their lives, careers and organizations. I can already see the results of this from my first clients. New thinking, new possibilities, new space and scope for who they are becoming and what that means for them and their worlds. I’m just so looking forward to continuing the journey and offering this transformative and deeply developmental opportunity to more clients and wider networks.”

Joanne Ostler, Leadership and Development Coach, Spring Leadership

“The Action Inquiry & Global Leadership Profile Virtual Program was excellently organized, with a strong energy and engagement flowing through the group for the whole week. The collaborative way of working enabled deeper discovery of the stages of adult developmental maturity, and I gained an intimacy of realization about each stage, along with the capability to administer and debrief the GLP instrument with clients.”

Paul O'Donovan Rossa, Executive Coach

“It is clear from taking the GLP Certification Workshop how Elaine and her team have been listening and taking action at the leading edge of human development for several decades now. The way they have translated their work into a meaningful, disciplined framework for leadership development and organizational transformation is staggering in its implications, elegant in its simplicity, and humbling in what it represents: a beacon of light in the midst of a complex world filled with shadows. Prosaics aside, the GLP also has a “role up your sleeves and get boots on the ground” kind of pragmatism about it.”

Christopher Chang-Duffet, Executive Director, Humaxis, Inc.

“I attended both the recent London accreditation Workshop and also the Advanced Practitioner Program, which invites you to take a deeper dive and answers the ‘what next’ question, developing a wider community of practice and inquiry. The space was creative and inviting in anticipation for learning, exploration and living the theory. I was joined by a group of wonderful, like-minded people who were happy to share their rich experiences, both professionally and personally. Elaine in particular is a wonderful facilitator – She manages to create a perfect balance between academic rigour and skilful use of art, metaphor and story-telling for making complex concepts not only accessible, but also much easier to integrate by the audience.”

Alis Anagnostakis, Consultant and Executive Coach
