MORE ABOUT MWV

This session is for you if:

1. You are thinking about joining the MyWorldView® Certification Program in June or you would like to know more about vertical development.
2. You have already signed up for the Program and would like to know more about the journey ahead.
3. You have questions about whether GLA's Vertical Development approach could add a new dimension to your individual or team coaching practice.

If you attend this session, then you will have one last chance to sign up for the MWV program with the full US$500 discount even though the early bird offer ended on 31st March.

MyWorldView® Practitioner Certification involves taking MyWorldView® yourself, six x 2.5 hour modules, two inquiry lab sessions, exclusive Thought Leader Q&A, and a complimentary MyWorldView® profile to use with a client at the end. GLA are generously offering a US$500 discount on this program, meaning the cost is just US$999 for coaches and practitioners (US$799 if you have already purchased MyWorldView®) and US$1,499 for corporates. At the end of the program, participants will be welcomed into GLA's vibrant Authorized Practitioner community enjoying a host of benefits including being able to purchase MyWorldView® profiles at a 50% discount to the retail price – US$200 (RRP US$400) for independent coaches.

N.B. costs are based on bookings made by Tuesday 22nd April 2025. Discount is then reduced to US$300 (rather than US$500).

Changing the way leaders think and act – their mindsets and worldviews – is key to organizational transformation and navigating complexity. Join Sue Coyne and Richard Izard (Co-Founder of GLA) for this complimentary one-off session on vertical development and its practical application, and leave with some top tips for your coaching practice. We'll also take a dive into the upcoming MyWorldView® Practitioner Certification Program, offering the chance to have your questions answered.

Leadership is exciting and rewarding. Increasingly, though, leaders are feeling overwhelmed and struggling to navigate complexity.

Leaders need to find a pathway through the challenges but keep hitting brick walls

Success requires leaders to shift how they are seeing the world. Why? Doing so offers broader perspectives, better decision-making, and more choices for action.

Come and learn from some of the world's leading experts on mindsets and worldviews (vertical development), and explore how growing mindsets can transform individual and organizational performance
